Message from our Exalted Ruler

I hope everyone had a great time at the pool this summer. The pool season may be drawing to a close, but that doesn't mean the Lodge is closed. There are plenty of events for everyone to enjoy throughout the entire year. Make sure you keep up to date on what's going on by frequenting our website www.hpelks.com or by following our Facebook page and Twitter feeds. The event information is updated regularly and is a great way to stay in the know.

Some of the not to miss events are the Labor Day Cookout on September 1st, NFL Tailgate on September 7th, Ladies Auxiliary 80's Party on September 13th, First Responders Appreciation Cookout on September 20th, Fall Wing Fest on October 4th and our 12th Annual Chili Cook-off on November 1st. These events add value to your membership year round, so don't miss out.

We'll be gearing up for the Fall State Convention to be held in High Point on October 24 – 26, so be sure to mark your calendar. Let's have a great showing of membership to let everyone in the state know what a great Lodge we have. In addition to the activities at the convention hotel, we'll be hosting a special event for everyone at our Lodge that weekend as well. Stay tuned for soon to be released details.

I hope to see you at the lodge soon!

Fraternally,
Steve Martin
Exalted Ruler

Elk of the Month

The August Elk of the Month is Russ Pallaci. Russ is a Past Exalted Ruler (PER), serves as a Trustee on the Board of Directors for the lodge, and he knows how to host a great fish fry. Russ has coordinated 2 very successful fish fry events for us in the past couple of months and we really appreciate the hard work. I'm sure he would also tell you that he had a great group of Elk friends that helped to cook and serve as well. When you see Russ at the lodge, please thank him for everything he does.
